Loire

The Loire valley extends c. 500 miles from Nantes on the Atlantic to the central vineyards in the east. The white varieties range from Muscadet to Chenin Blanc to Sauvignon Blanc. The wines grown on the flinty soils of Sancerre and Pouilly Fumé are some of the most balanced and elegant Sauvignon Blancs in the world.

Pouilly Fumé Fines Caillottes   Jean Pabiot	69.90
Sancerre Blanc   Pascal Jolivet	84.90
Baron de 'L' Ladoucette	179.90

Alsace

Alsace is best known for its aromatic whites. The use of flute shaped bottles often suggests something of a Germanic nature however whilst these wines are fragrant, they are mostly bone dry.

Gewurztraminer   Dopff & Irion	44.90
Riesling Grand Cru   Schoenenbourg   Dopff & Irion	69.90

Rhône | Provence | Languedoc Rousillon

The steep slopes of the Northern Rhône are home to fleshy rich whites produced from Marsanne, Roussane and Viognier. Moving south these give way to Grenache Blanc, Clairette, Rolle, and an eclectic mix of standard varieties. Uniquely, the sand dunes of the Rhône delta are home to the Muscadet like Picpoul de Pinet where it pairs perfect with the locally farmed shellfish.

California

The cooler valleys of Sonoma and Napa provide some of the best wine growing climates for Chardonnay and Pinot Noir allowing the production of fruit driven rich buttery Chardonnays often fermented in oak.

Kendall Jackson Vintner's Reserve Chardonnay	69.90
Cuvaison Chardonnay   Carneros	89.90
Cakebread Cellars Chardonnay   Napa	129.90
Marimar Estate La Masia Chardonnay   Russian River Valley	179.90

South Africa

South Africa has been producing quality wine for centuries and indeed one of Napoleon's favourite wines was shipped from Klein Constantia. The changing political situation has had an impact over the years but independent growers are now producing world class wines.

Painted Wolf The Den Chenin Blanc   Paarl	49.90
Daschbosch Mossiesdrift Steen   Breedekloof	59.90
Five Soldiers Chardonnay   Rustenberg	99.90

Chile

The geography of Chile ranges from the snow capped Andes through the hot central valleys and down to the coastal region which is cooled by currents from the Antarctic. These perfect growing conditions have attracted top winemakers from all round the world to Chile.

Rosé Wine

Provence

Rosé wines in this area started as a by-product of the intense reds which were popular locally; some of the lighter juice was removed from the skins. The region is now famous for its very pale elegant food friendly dry rosés.

Whispering Angel   Château d'Esclans	59.90

Red Wine

Bordeaux

Bordeaux is noted for the production of some of the most highly regarded red wines in the world. They are almost invariably blends of Cabernet Sauvignon and Merlot with some other local varieties. The vineyards on the west bank of the Gironde (Medoc) are mostly composed of free draining glacial gravel which suits the Cabernet which dominates their blend. Those to the east (St Emilion & Pomerol) are largely clay hence the predominance of Merlot.

Pomerol

Château Lafleur Gazin 149.90

Château Petrus 6000.90

Burgundy

Red Burgundy is 100% Pinot Noir except in Beaujolais in the south where the wines are 100% Gamay. The style of the wines varies according to the terroir and the skill of the winemakers. That is why all of our wines come from small family producers noted for their quality.

Like all Pinot Noirs, they can be light and fruity when young, however, the better reds from this region develop enormous complexity and class with age.

Gevrey Chambertin | Bouchard 150.90

Rhône | Provence | Languedoc Roussillon

The hot Mediterranean sun allows the production of big full bodied reds which often have hints of the wild herbs that grow in the Garrigue surrounding the vineyards. In the Northern Rhône, Syrah dominates but moving south the wines are blends including Grenache, Syrah and Mourvèdre among others. The Languedoc is known for the mass production of cheap wine but there are also numerous boutique wineries making stunning quality wines

Côtes-du-Rhône   Franck Balthazar   S Rhône	59.90
